

Prince Edward Island Alpine Ski Association

Policy Title:

Athlete Code of Conduct

Policy Objective:

The athlete code of conduct has been developed to guide athletes and outline standards of behaviour while participating in ski association programs. It is a specific description of behaviour we expect from athletes involved in our programs.

Code Of Conduct Policies:

Respect for Others

- I do not endanger others through my actions.
- I will act respectful towards other and refrain from activities or language which is abusive, racist, sexist, offensive or demeaning in any way.
- I refrain from any actions or behaviours that may be considered harassment.
- I refrain from posting images or content on social media that may be considered harassment.
- I respect the privacy of all other members.
- I will treat every member fairly and with dignity.
- I refrain from any hostile activity including physical violence, intimidation or threatening another person, any form of verbal or online intimidation and bullying, and sexual harassment in any form.

Respect for Self

- I respect the principle of fair sport.
- I respect the principles of drug free sport and its policies.
- I abstain from the use of alcohol or tobacco while training with or participating in activities of Alpine Canada and the Prince Edward Island Alpine Ski Association.
- I report all breaches of conduct to an appropriate authority such as a coach or board member of the Prince Edward Island Alpine Ski Association.

Respect for Sport

- I aim for excellence in sport for both myself and my teammates.
- I respect the practice of safe sport and ethical play.
- I do not interfere with preparation for competition for the other athletes and the association in general.
- I respect all decisions of coaches, judges and officials.

Respect for Alpine Canada and Prince Edward Island Alpine Ski Association

- I will adhere to all policies and procedures dictated by the Alpine Canada Association.
- I accept that I am an ambassador for Alpine Skiing and the Alpine Canada Ski Association. I will act in ways to ensure that I will not bring the sport of alpine skiing or Alpine Canada into disrepute.

Respect for Property

- I respect the property of others and that of the Prince Edward Island Alpine ski association. I will not engage in destruction or vandalism of this property.

Failure to comply with this code of Conduct will result in disciplinary action which may lead to the athlete losing privileges, not participating in activities or being terminated from the program.

I certify that I have read and understand this Athlete Code of Conduct and will adhere to policies outlined here and in the PEI Alpine Ski Team Handbook.
